

Once a cat lived in a house. Some mice also lived near that house in a hole. The cat had seen the hole and whenever it was hungry, it hid in the bushes near the hole. When any mouse came out it caught and ate it up. Soon the number of mice began to decrease. They decided to tie a bell around the neck of the cat so that they might hear it when it was coming. One day, the cat was having a sound sleep. All the mice together tied a bell to the neck of the cat. Now all the mice were safe because the bell rang whenever the cat came near the hole. All mice rushed towards the hole. They were very happy because of their wise planning.
